To Who it May Concern

I am happy to provide this testimonial for B2B Cashflow Solutions Ltd, I have dealt with this company and Mr Brian Chester for some time and I have always found the company to be a pleasure to do business with, not once over all the years I have dealt with them has there ever been a problem. Our last dealings with this company was in August last year, once I had provided Mr Chester with details of what we required I knew that I did not have to worry any further about shopping around for any better rates or terms.

I would recommend B2B to anybody looking for finance solutions and when we require further funds B2B will be the first company I call.

Regards

David Cleal
